Mark Of A Panther

We Made Our Mark

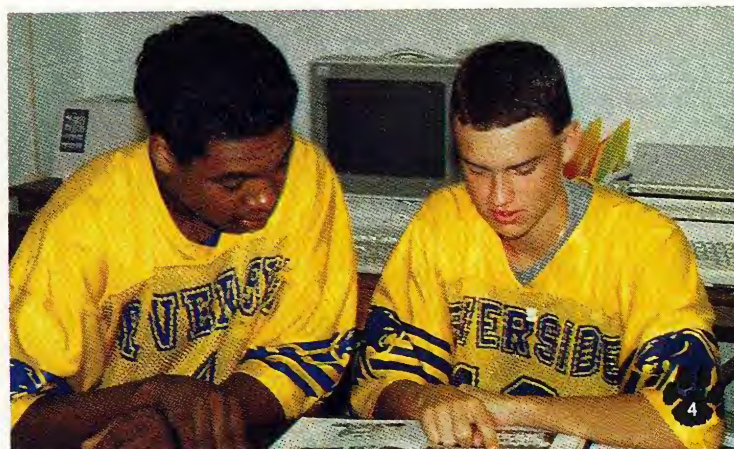

As you look through this year-book, you'll see that Panthers are very unique. Where ever they go, whatever they do, these students always MAKE THEIR MARK!

1. Does Tomesa really like me, or is this only a pose?
2. Hands up for the Panthers!
3. Get a grip, Amber — he's not that cute!
4. Jason and Daniel — Flinstone kids,

- before and after!
5. Hey, Mikey, What happened to Melinda?!?
6. Sasha — Mi Amiga es loca!

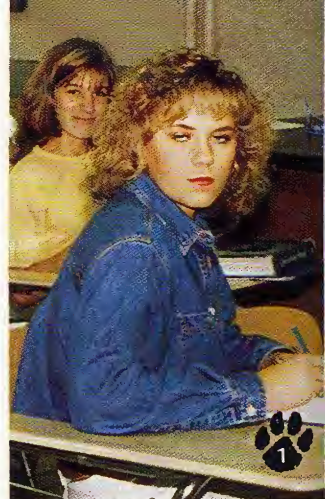

1. Andrea, are you helping Jody escape Coach Gardner's death-threatening basketball practice?
2. Molly, Shelley, Holly, Ashley, and even Chad are trying to squeeze in for one more picture!
3. Pucker up, Panthers! Here comes Slim!
4. Football fanatics David and Mike finally break to refresh on ABC'S.
5. Senior Jeremy Moore has found the book he's always wanted — "How to

- Sew, Cook, and Clean."
6. Adam again? I thought I'd gotten rid of him.
7. Oh, dear, that Amber Carrington makes my heart race!

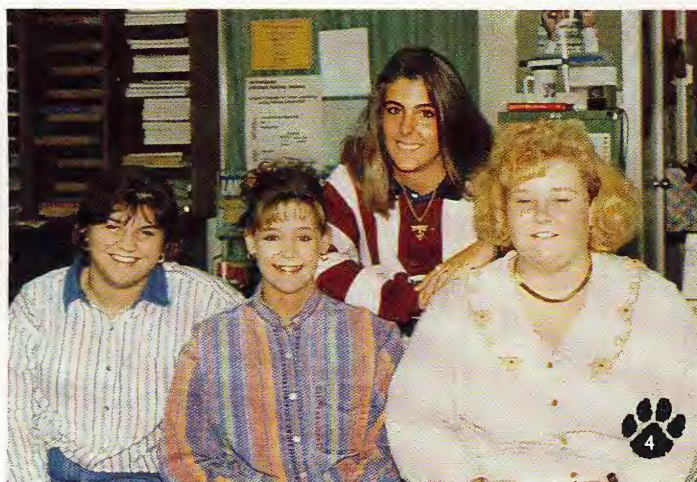

Paw Of Distinction

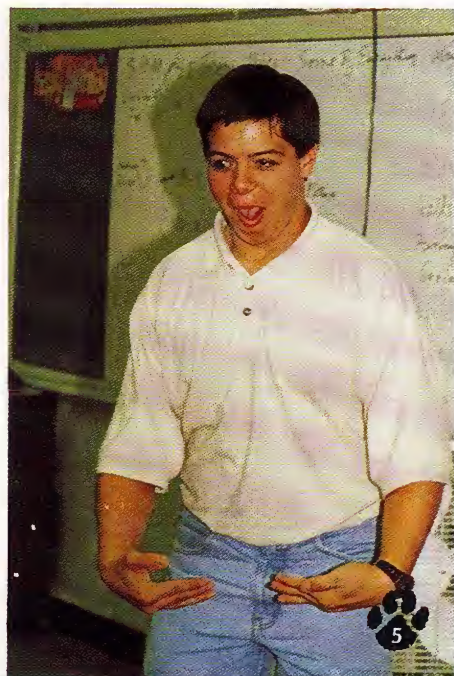

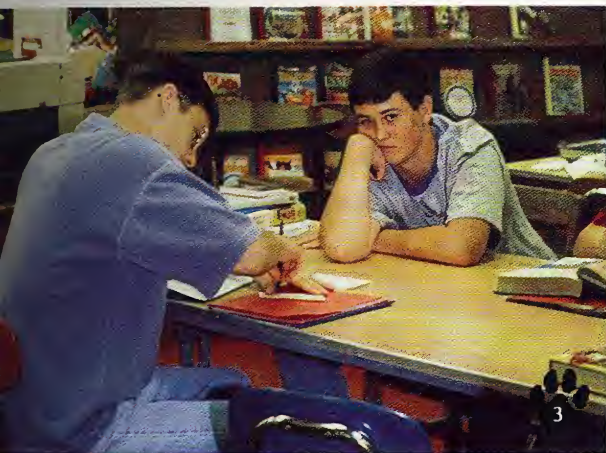

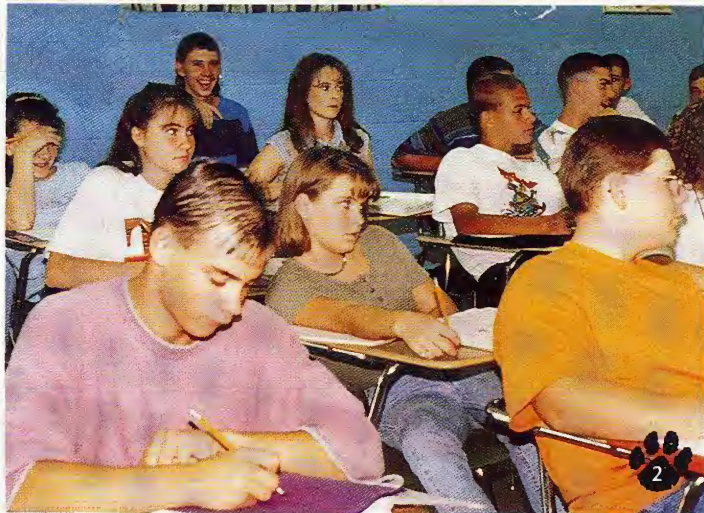

These pages are only a glimpse of Riverside life. From classrooms to pep rallies, Panthers are always on the prowl. The memories are unforgettable, the fun immeasurable, and the Panthers ... simply unstoppable.

1. Courtney — Dazed and Confused.
2. Samatha, Laurie, Ashley, and Holly are the new RHS colonists.
3. John Maxwell — Hey Anthony, wanna go for a ride on my new HotRod motorcycle? Anthony — Huh Huh! Yea, but don't tell my girlfriend!
4. These RHS gals are working way too hard!
5. Jon-Michael Lee — Going to Grandma's!

1. David Smith — Man, I Love You, Jimmy!
2. Alita Graves, Beth Bedingfield, Andrea Harrington and Justin Broadway — $2+2=4$? Where does Ms. Gregory come up with this stuff?
3. Kevin Brown — Another dreadful day of watching Kyle write love poems to Ashley.
4. Do it red hippie shades!
5. Bad Chad — The next Pee-Wee Herman.
6. Who said short men can't dunk?
7. Chris Haynes — What? Is this the first time you've seen me doing homework?
8. Don't hate me because I'm beautiful!

Friends ...

A friend will share your secrets, your dreams, your hopes, your laughter, and your tears. Friends are a part of your good times and stand beside you during the bad. Through life's many ups and downs a friend will always be around.

1. She will be mine someday — oh, yes, she will be mine!

Fun Times At R.H.S.

At Riverside, students participate in different activities to support the Panthers.

During Homecoming week at R.H.S., students enjoy dressing up for a different theme each day of the week.

1. Justin Swindle, Brandi James, John Hutchison, and Tabitha Brasher show their support on camouflage day.

2. Our foreign exchange student, Nok Chanama, enjoys her first snow.

3. Jamie Weatherford, Amber Carrington, Charlyn Quinn, Jessica Smith look snazzy in sunflowers on hat day.

Shanna Bree Mays

Bree

Above: Senior Bree Mays' pictures arrived too late to be in the color section.

1. Yvonne Earnest Roach and Heather Wallace dissect a shark in marine science.

2. Mary Beth Freeman participates in History Day by dressing up as a colonist and demonstrating a craft.

3. Wendy Reddix and Julie Ivy show their support for Jeff Gordon during Homecoming week.

Brent Austin

3-21-79 to 10-26-95

Of all the people we grew up with,
Of all we've ever known,
There's always a certain person whose dedication is shown.

You count on them to be there,
You count on them to stay,
But one day you look up and suddenly they've gone away.

We wonder why it happened,
Why was it one of our friends?
Why couldn't we have been there,
Why did it have to end?

There is no explanation to the questions that rule
our lives,
but if we look deep inside, happiness — someday
we'll find.

Sophomore Philosophy

"Well, we've made it once again."

I said as we walk down the hall.

All the memories we have made —

How can I ever remember them all?

Just two more years to go and then

my high school days will soon end.

How the years just passed us by ...

didn't the time just fly?

Old friends cherished, new friends made,

each were there at our aid.

A friend gives courage, and comfort too,

and I'm glad I found a friend like you.

We've shared laughter, and cried each tear,

and helped each other through the year.

We have our own ways, can't you see?

It's called the Sophomore Philosophy.

1995-96 Yearbook Staff

We have experienced a lot of different things throughout our years on the yearbook staff. It has been a lot of fun but also a lot of hard work. We have made many different friendships and shared a lot of frustration. It has been a great experience, learning how to create your own yearbook.

We would like to thank Mrs. Kay Townsend, our yearbook adviser, for taking time out to make picture appointments and putting up with us. Thanks to our teachers who have excused us from our classes. We would also like to thank Benita White, Janell Evans, Bette Courtney, Adam and Valerie Haynes, Betty Harris, Kerry Barrett, and Lafon Carter for chaperoning us during our ad selling.

The professional photographs in this yearbook were taken by Kerry Baker and Mike Fesmire.

WE'RE OUT OF HERE!

The past cannot be forgotten —

Growing up in a small town doesn't take a lot to get used to. Meeting people for the first time. What did they think of me? I've made a lot of friends, and now I see them every day. I know everyone's name by their faces. We've had a lot of fun as kids, but now we're adults. Where has time gone? Now we're Seniors, about to become the future. What will we be? Then, it happens — someone leaves. Someone close to all of us. He was our friend; we grew up with him. Tears, just won't stop! So many people in pain, but yet, we have the strength to go on. When will the present be the same? No one has the answers, so we all sit in silence talking about the past, "The good times." Now, it's as though we have all moved on. Walking in remembrance of those we've left behind.

The Yearbook Staff members regret that the memorial page for Jody Gibson could not be in color; however, the color deadline had already been turned in before he passed away.

Thinking of the time that has really flown by, our Senior year has come and gone.

To some it was the best year of their lives. To some it wasn't because of the loss of our beloved classmate.

The upcoming years some fear, because some do not know the direction they are to follow. Some have faith, because they have a designation in life to fulfill. Others just don't care, but through it all, after we've walked that long aisle and sung that song for the last time, our adolescent years will no longer be.

As we take our last walk out, let us remember that we won't see one another like we used to, so let us cherish this moment forever.

Don't ever forget that the Senior Class of 1996 RULED!!!!, and yes, we were ALL GOOD!!!

Good Luck to the Class of '96!!!!
